LEGACY TO CHILDREN

Warminster Man Disinherits Family; Haycock Woman Disinherits Daughter

DOYLESTOWN, Mar. 24 — A charter member of Bucks County Firemen's Association, the late Victor Smith, Quakertown, has named his widow as beneficiary in his will.

In another will filed in the register of Wills office a Warminster man disinherited his wife and two children; and a Haycock township woman disinherited her adopted daughter.

Victor A. Smith, of Quakertown, who died Feb. 1, named his widow, Sarah Jane Smith, the beneficiary of his $3,000 personal estate. As executor of his sister, Tillie W. Smith's estate, which amounted to $7447, he turned over that legacy to his children.

A son, Edward L. Smith, 231 Juniper st., Quakertown, was named executor of his father's estate, and the testator's will was written Oct. 20, 1934. The testator was a former Quakertown Burgess.

Joseph G. Cramer, Warminster twp., who left a personal estate of $500, disinherited his wife, Ida L. Cramer, and two daughters, Helen E. Cramer and Edythe R. Kepler, neither of whom he has seen in two decades. In his will, written April 12, 1946, the testator, who named Wallace H. Ross and Wava E. Ross beneficiaries, stipulated that his wife and daughters be disinherited because they had not taken any interest in him for more than 20 years. He died Nov. 21, 1948, and Wava E. Ross, Hathboro, RD 1, was named executrix.

A SUMMARY OF THE NEWS

The Senate passed last night, 68 to 10, a bill extending rent controls for fifteen months. A local-option clause permits municipalities to set controls at any time with the consent of their State Governor. The measure also permits landlords to raise rents 5 per cent twice. Earlier the United States Conference of Mayors adopted a resolution condemning local option and demanding stiff Federal controls.

Representative Rankin saved his veterans pension bill by forcing a House adjournment after a day of amendments that encouraged the Administration-led opposition.

A House subcommittee, by straight party vote, approved without change the Administration bill to replace the Taft-Hartley Law. The United Electrical Workers asked the CIO to call a national conference to unify fourth-round wage demands.

Louis F. Budenz, former Daily Worker editor, told the jury trying eleven American Communist leaders that he and several of the defendants had taken an oath of eternal loyalty to Premier Stalin.

"I am a whole-hearted supporter" of the North Atlantic pact, Winston Churchill said when he arrived here yesterday. He will speak at the

RELEASE FATHERS TO SUPPORT CHILDREN

Both of The Defendants Are In Arrears Amounting To Over $400

N A M E CONSTABLE

DOYLESTOWN, Mar. 24 — Two defendants, each of whom is a father and had been committed to the County Prison in contempt of support orders, were released by President Judge Hiram H. Keller.

Stephen Cuth, 21 West Airy st., Norristown, formerly of Sellersville, R. D. 1, who is $402 in the arrears, was released on condition that $114 be paid to a Milford township woman, Mrs. Latschaw, who boarded his three children, and that another $100 be paid on the arrears.

Cuth, a Conshohocken A. & P. store manager, was "forwarded" two weeks pay—$130—to help pay up his arrears. Of his two weeks vacation pay, which amounts to $65 a week, the sum of $130 will be used toward defraying the $402 arrears.

His three children are now in Catholic institutions for which he is supposed to be paying $18 a week. When he defaulted, the county was forced to pay the $18 a week. President Judge Keller directed the defendant to pay $18 a week and also catch up on the remaining arrears of $172.

Probation Officer Horace E. Gwiner testified that Mrs. Cuth paid $100 toward the arrears on Saturday, but that the defendant will not be released from prison until the $130 is received from the chain store company.

John Roehm, Jones' Lane, Croydon, who is $405 in arrears, was

HERE WE GO AGAIN!

It is very likely that the Atlantic Pact will be approved by the Senate with reasonable promptness, and that Congress will shortly thereafter give Mr. Truman most of what he wants to implement the treaties—give him a billion dollars of cash, and authority to hand over to whatever European nation he wishes any and all arms he decides are "surplus."

There is much misgivings about this plan, both in the nation as a whole and Congress in particular. But there cannot be said to be organized opposition to it.

Befuddlement over public issues is too widespread, and indifference to what the future holds too universal, for any national examination of this program to be likely. The generation is far along in two mind-confusing emotional spirals—the cycle of monetary inflation, and a hysterical arms race based on fear and lack of self-reliance.

These two spirals are interwoven. The impetus which keeps inflation moving ahead is the vast over-spending of our government for "foreign relief" and armaments. The factor which makes it possible for these spending-programs to continue is fear of the future in our foreign relationships.

We are becoming more and more geared to a war economy—or at least, a war-preparation economy. It is appalling to realize that we have drifted into a situation where, as it has been stated, "an outbreak of peace would be an economic disaster."

If the carefully cultivated feeling that war is impending were to vanish overnight, we would plunge into deep depression. The results of such a panic, in view of our involved national finances, might be disaster. But if the war-frenzy continues to grow, sooner or later we will find a war—which also will spell disaster.

These are unpleasant truths—so unpleasant that very few American statesmen seem willing to face them. They are symptoms of a very serious disorder in this nation's well-being.

They furnish the background, however, to present the new Atlantic Pact for what it is—a sleeping pill to keep the patient from realizing how critical is his condition.

The Atlantic Pact is the product of the same thinking which produced such masterpieces of deception and false promise as Lend-Lease, Dumbarton Oaks, Bretton Woods, the fictitious Atlantic Charter, the outrageous concessions to Russia at Tehran, Yalta and Potsdam, the Greek-Turk program, the Marshall Plan, and many other similar projects.

All of these, including the Reciprocal Trade Agreements program of sixteen years ago, have been promoted as guarantees of world solidarity, security and peace. None of them has succeeded. Some have been abandoned, others still clutter the landscape.

Young Folks of Bristol Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y Meet With T. Epply and Ritter

James Ritter, a member of the Bristol township junior high school faculty (science department), has been named supervisor of Bristol Young Men's Christian Association building on Mansion street.

Mr. Ritter, a graduate of Bloomsburg State Teachers College, was for some years a member of Danville Y. M. C. A., and carried out voluntary work there for a period of time. He will be located at the "Y" building in a supervisory capacity when it opens Tuesday, March 29th. The "Y" will be open every evening, six to nine o'clock, Mondays through Fridays, and all day Saturday. Plans are being made for a teen age program each Saturday evening.

On Tuesday afternoon about 12 young folks, officers of the Hi-Y and the Tri-Hi-Y of Bristol high school, met with Telford Epply, district executive secretary, Y. M. C. A., and with Mr. Ritter at the "Y". The purpose of that meeting was to try to determine the type of program the young people would like carried out at the "Y". The same group will meet again on Friday, April 1st, at three p. m., at the "Y", to form a young people's council. This council will act as a program committee under the leadership of Mr. Ritter.

"THEY GOTTA ADAPT"

Television's future as a tool in adult and child education, and as a handy appearance to industry and science, has been examined both eruditely and at length. But, for the moment, public health interest is chiefly concentrated on it as a purveyor of information and entertainment.

Encroachments into this latter field are now causing a wave of breast-beating and alarms. The consensus among prophets in the broadcasting and entertainment fields is that the infant video is about to turn upon and destroy radio. Latest to offer comment on the chances of radio's ultimate demise is Fred Allen, the gravel-voiced proprietor of Allen's Alley, who probably is as well qualified as anyone to act as spokesman for one sector of the industry.

The way Allen sees it, the end of an era for radio funnymen is at hand, and he includes himself in the decline and fall. Allen observes, "What we do on the air now is no good for television. We've been operating for years with pure sound gags as our stock in trade, and suddenly they're no good any more." His tart summation: "We gotta adapt."

Allen feels that video will by no means swallow radio. Radio will decline, perhaps, as television gradually blankets the country, but it will not fold completely.

It is too early to predict permanent trends away from radio and motion pictures. But it is true, as the sage of Allen's Alley points out, "they gotta adapt."

BALKANS ARE BUZZING

President Truman's reports to Congress on Greece seem invariably optimistic, though subsequent events seldom bear him out. His latest report was in his usual vein, but this time the outlook really does seem to be better. In fact, the fear of an aggressive move by Russia which has the Balkans buzzing stems from the knowledge that Moscow has lost ground in that area and may try forcibly to regain it.

Mr. Truman did inject a word of caution. He warned that a quick and easy victory in Greece was not in sight.

Without American aid, there is little doubt that Greece would now be ruled by a communist dictatorship imposed by force. American aid produced a stalemate but failed to end the civil war. Tito, it is reported, has closed the Yugoslav-Greek frontier with barbed wire, and the Greek guerillas have reacted by depositing Tito's friend Markos as their leader and increasing their terrorism against the Greek countryside.

Moscow has tried to build up Albania as a base for them, but without much success. The people there are discontented under their Soviet puppet government. But Russia may be planning to play a stronger card. There have been ominous reports of Soviet troop movements in the Balkans, to which Tito has reacted by troop movements of his own. Any Russian blow at Yugoslavia would be felt in Greece.

Here We Go Again!

While none of them has done any of the wonders which were promised, they have all had their results. Every one of them has given the President and bureaucrats vast sums of tax moneys to spend as they pleased. And every one of them has subtly taken sovereignty away from the American people, where it belongs, and transferred it to the White House, where it doesn't belong.

This new program follows the same lines. Together with foreign relief, the Atlantic Pact will call for the expenditure of some ten to twenty billions of dollars a year of "extra" money by the government, over and above our normal national turnover. This will have the effect of pump-priming, to try to keep inflation alive.

Even more than its predecessors, this plan strips new powers away from Congress, where the people have a chance to control them, and lodged them in the Executive, where they are beyond control.

The Atlantic Pact calls for "automatic" war—that is to say, for war whenever something happens in foreign fields, or is announced to have happened by the American State Department.

It is idle to pretend that Congress would have a free decision whether to declare war or not, in that event. The hand of Congress would be forced. The decision between war and peace will no longer lie where the Constitution placed it, in Congress; but would be where every dictator wants it to be—in the hands of the Chief Executive.

The power to declare war has sometimes been called "the ultimate in sovereignty." That is true. No people have a right to even pretend they are free when their ruler, without consulting them, has the power to plunge them into war.

What the Atlantic Pact sets up is not an alliance between free and equal nations, but a tangled alliance between one nation which still retains some semblance of freedom—the United States—and a horde of Socialist nations which have surrendered freedom for government relief checks.

The objective of the rulers of these foreign countries is very simple. They propose to exploit "capitalist" America—that is to say, the wage-earners of this nation—just as ruthlessly as previous generations of Europeans exploited the natives of Africa, India, and many another group too ignorant or too feeble to stand up for their rights.

They propose to force the American people to contribute to their support, and to supply them with arms, on the threat that otherwise they will throw in with Russia and presently overwhelm us in battle.

Like all diplomatic propositions, this one is not presented in the bald, harsh phrases just used, but is dressed up in all sorts of high-sounding disguises. Yet stripped of these wrappings, that's what it boils down to.

There have been generations of Americans who had the self-confidence to tell blustering "spongers" where to get off—to tell them to go back to work, to live within their earnings, or suffer the consequences.

In twenty years, ever since the American people's faith in themselves was shaken by the world Depression that broke in 1929, we have lacked that type of self-reliance.

We have ourselves become contaminated with that most absurd of all delusions in history—that it is possible for the people of a nation to live comfortably with no more exertion than voting themselves incomes from their governments.

Unlike the exponents of this belief whom we are subsidizing in Europe, we would have nowhere else to turn except upon our own resources, if we go all-out for that program—which may be exactly what we are going to do. We certainly will swallow it, if Mr. Truman has his way. Once we start burning up our resources and wealth in Socialism, we will have few friends abroad. And there is no other country on the face of the earth with enough wealth left after fooling with Socialism to be worth fighting a war to capture.

This is a dark, tragic picture. More than once in the past history of this nation, nothing but unexpected events which were Providential in appearance saved the American venture in self-government from disaster.

Perhaps it's time for a new miracle!

James Ritter is Named Supervisor for Bristol "Y"

Haines Kent, state Y.M.C.A. secretary, and T. F. Eppley, district executive Y.M.C.A. met with this committee, and it was decided that the district executive should locate his office in Bristol with the thought of developing the work of the Y. M. C. A. here. On June 1st, 1947, Mr. Eppley took up his residence in Bristol, and has been at work creating a more extended program of Y.M.C.A. services in this community. An advisory board of 12 men and three women, all civic and industrial leaders in Bristol, has been formed. Through the efforts of this board, a new consciousness for the Y.M.C.A. has been created, and on April 5, 1948, papers were presented in the Bucks County Courts requesting the incorporation of the "Bristol Young Men's Christian Association."

Growth of the Young Men's Christian Association in Bristol has been progressing rapidly. The past two years has seen many new activities created, including the Bucks County Industrial Management Club with 168 men enrolled in its membership from 22 different Bristol plants; the Bristol Youth Week, with over 1500 participating or attending the activities; a full summer program for younger boys with 250 different boys enrolled; greatly extended Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y clubs, now numbering six clubs with a membership of about 150 high school girls and boys; and an active participation in many Y. M. C. A. rallies, conferences, training camps, etc.

On January 1, the Bristol board took another major step when it signed the lease for the rental of Beaver Fire Co., No. 4 Station, on Mansion street, making building facilities available for a still greater service of the Y.M.C.A. for the youth of Bristol. The new building will include a gymnasium, showers, game rooms, indoor target range, and a general well-rounded program of supervised activities.

Former Fallsington Woman Arrives From Australia

FALLSINGTON, Mar. 24 — Arriving from Sydney, Australia, Mrs. Olive Hartman Smith and her four children, aged five months to seven years, are visiting Mrs. Smith's mother, Mrs. Hannah Hartman, here, for a year. Mrs. Smith's husband, Clyde W. Smith, who is engaged in Y.M.C.A. work at Adelaide and Canberra, has remained in Australia.

The Smiths travelled from Sydney to Perth in southwestern Australia, then sailed for England, and finally to New York, N. Y., the journey taking seven weeks. The ship made stops at Ceylon, Aden in Arabia and Port Said.

Mrs. Smith was graduated from Fallsington high school in 1934. Later she became a student at West Chester State Teachers' College, where she majored in music. Her first teaching assignment was in North Carolina. She later taught at Richboro, where she remained until June, 1940. It was while at Lake George, N. Y., that she met Mr. Smith, and a short time after their marriage at her home here, they left for Australia.

December and January bring the mid-summer weather to Australia, and at that time the temperature gets as high as 115 degrees. She described winter weather as "nippy". The temperature during that season rarely gets lower than 25 degrees. Houses have no central heating systems, and the only heat is produced by wood stoves or fireplaces.

Bowling on the green, tennis, croquet, cricket and rugby are the favorite sports.

According to Mrs. Smith, women work very hard in Australia. Many of them have never seen a clothes wringer and washing machines are scarce. Automobiles in use are mostly of the bantam type, and are quite expensive. A number of the wealthier people are able to purchase American cars, the cheapest of which costs about $1000.

Because Australia is a wool producing country, there is an abundance of woolen goods. What Mrs. Smith misses most are knitted cotton goods, especially for children's apparel. Shoes were described as inferior to American and British made footwear.

Canned fruit juices have not come into use in Australia, and canned vegetables are beginning to appear on the markets in small quantities. The country with a climate that ranges from tropical to temperate has a fine variety of fresh vegetables.

Food prices in Australia, according to Mrs. Smith, are much lower than in the United States. She says a splendid meal can be bought in a restaurant for the equivalent of 50 cents in American money.

John Miller has returned to his employment following three weeks' absence due to illness.

SUNDAY DINNER Suggestions

THE average housewife, constantly seeking "something extra special" for her Sunday dinner, should certainly welcome a menu based on shoulder of lamb, featuring a stuffing of fresh oysters.

Prepared according to recommendations of the A & P Service for Home-Makers, this dish will prove tasty, tempting and economical addition to any family's dinner table.

When buying the shoulder of lamb have the butcher extract the bone neatly. Then fill this space with a stuffing consisting of a cupful of bread crumbs, a dozen finely chopped raw oysters, two tablespoonsful of melted butter, one tablespoonful of chopped parsley, one teaspoonful of onion juice and one-half teaspoonful of paprika.

Roast the lamb shoulder in a quick oven. Then, into two tablespoonfuls of softened butter, mix one tablespoonful each of chopped parsley, onion and lemon juice and kitchen bouquet. When done, draw the meat from the oven and spread this sauce over it. Then return to the oven for an additional four minutes.

Garnish the lamb with small, round, fried potatoes, add fresh green peas, and, if desired, serve with either a mixed green salad or a head of lettuce with Russian dressing. Remember, oysters "R" in season this month and can be used without worry.

For dessert, if the family still has room for it after this filling main course, try serving sliced peaches, light cake and an appropriate beverage, according to your family's tastes. At least an honorary degree as Master of the Culinary Arts should result.

Says Toll Rates Are To Be Further Reduced

Tolls on the Tacony-Palmyra and Burlington-Bristol bridges will be reduced further when a system of commutation tickets begins in the near future. Daniel Lichtenthal, vice chairman of the Burlington Bridge Commission announced yesterday.

The cost of the proposed commutation ticket was not disclosed, but Lichtenthal indicated it would be "considerably less" than the present 25-cent toll. The commission has advised Superior Court Judge Hayden Proctor that it plans to adopt the commutation ticket system.

The Judge was informed because the Commission is operating under a Superior Court retrial order secured by Freeholders Henry S. Haines and Richard J. Lippincott, who are trying to set aside the purchase by the county. Lichtenthal added that the commutation tickets will be interchangeable for use on both spans.

A Philadelphia police woman, Marie, E. Fischel, who spoke on the subject of delinquent girls at a meeting of the Soroptimist Club of Bucks County, Monday, at Doylestown, emphatically stressed the point that she didn't want any publicity.

The four guests were Miss Marion Gallagher, Yardley; Miss Mabel Rohr, Doylestown, RD; Mrs. Daniel Segal, Plumstead, and Mrs. Violet Richmond, Doylestown school vocal music teacher.

Asks Preservation of Old Bucks Co. Homes

MECHANICSVILLE, Mar. 24—An appeal was made by Fred F. Martin, Doylestown architect, for preservation of old buildings in Bucks County, when he spoke to Bucks Co. Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, on Monday. The plea was made in the interest of preserving a heritage as well as adding to the beauty of the countryside.

The luncheon was held at "Sunny Acres", the early American home of Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Poneck, here.

Mr. Martin described two types of buildings—the manor house with the broad central hall, with spacious rooms throughout, and the homes of the farmers.

He displayed drawings of the Isaiah Warner home in Wrightstown, where Colonel and Mrs. Ira F. Fravel reside—showing the original panelling and fire places.

Drawings of "The Highlands" of the Stewart Chapman farm in New Britain township, where it is said that silver was buried during the Revolution were also shown. This was the home of the late Arthur Chapman.

The speaker also described a combination manor and farm house, the William Rodman house at the Bucks County Home, recently restored. This is the home occupied by Dr. S. P. McIlhatten. It was in this house, on the second floor,

Reject Proposal To Rent Yardley Community Center

YARDLEY, Mar. 24—The board of directors of the Yardley Community Center rejected a proposal by a Trenton attorney to lease the center's facilities for commercial purposes.

The offer, made by Ernest Glickman of Trenton for an undisclosed client, called for the center to be used as a motion picture theatre. Glickman proposed a five-year lease with a renewal option for two additional five-year terms.

In rejecting the offer, members of the board pointed out that use of the building for commercial purposes would prohibit its use by organizations and churches in the community.

A four-member committee was appointed at the session to investigate a projected replacement of seats in the building. Approximate cost of the new seats, which would be movable, is $4,500.

Members of the committee are August Cadwallader, Jr., Mrs. Harold N. Curtis, Mrs. Joseph Harvey and Robert Sands. Joseph McKenna presided at the meeting.

NEWS OF INTEREST TO PA. FARMERS

By John Harms
(I. N. S. Penna. Farm Editor)

HARRISBURG, Mar. 24—It looks like Pennsylvania's farmers are in for a good year.

Agriculture Secretary Miles Horst believes farming and economic conditions generally "paint an optimistic picture for the farmer this year."

Horst said the average farmer is ahead of time this spring because "we've had a good open winter, moisture conditions are favorable, farm equipment is available and the seed situation is fair—although seed prices are a bit higher in some lines."

The prevailing feeling of uncertainty about the economic situation is making the farmer go easy in expanding his facilities.

Horst said "Although I am optimistic about the coming farm season, farmers are reluctant to spend their money for items that are not absolute necessities."

He pointed out farmers are not certain of just what to expect of prices this year and so would be rather cautious in their buying.

There are indications, according to statistics on the economic situation, that would call for farmers going easy this season.

Horst said fertilizer prices will be up this year, and so will some feed and fuel. There was no sharp break in those prices in sight, he indicated.

"Consumer prices too are dropping and it appears that the selling market is slowly giving way," he said.

Horst pointed out that although price conditions were on the move, Pennsylvania farmers always have taken the "long view" and would not be worried about short spurts and slumps of the markets.

"This is a very stable, old agriculture we have in Pennsylvania," Horst declared.

"Farmers don't jump to whims too much here. Our farmers don't sink everything into one furrow. Diversification and compensating crops are the by-words on our farms and next to California our state is the greatest diversified agricultural state in the Union," he said.

Commenting on last year's wheat crop failure, Horst said he didn't look for another such mishap for many years. He stressed that last year's wheat slump was caused by smut and barberry rust.

The Department is planning an all-out campaign this year to wipe out the rust with the help of a $50,000 grant proposed in the House of Representatives by Rep. Harold G. Wescott (R) Susquehanna.

Horst supplied the following brief facts on the national farm scene: Farmers' prices have been drifting downward an average of about two per cent a month since mid-summer. Prices farmers pay haven't gone down as fast as those they receive. Farm price declines since last summer are due chiefly to big 1948 crops and improved world food situation.

Fluid milk prices will decline some in coming months, but premium over manufacturing milk will stay unusually large for a while. Prices of manufactured dairy products are not likely to decline much in the first half of 1949, although output will increase seasonally.

Prices to growers for fresh vegetables in March and April are likely to average lower than last year. Price supports for 1949 crop potatoes will be about one-third lower than for the 1948 crop.

The Secretary also made some interesting comparisons of Pennsylvania's production with the other farm states in 1948.

Pennsylvania led the pack in buckwheat production. In corn the state was 20th in acreage planted, seventh in yield and 12th in value of crop. Cigar-leaf tobacco figures show the Keystone State first in acreage, yield and production but second in value.

In peaches the state ranked seventh in production of 40 producing states and sixth in value of crop. The Keystone State ranked eighth in potato acreage, 18th in yield, seventh in production and sixth in dollar value.

CHURCHES UNITE TO AID WORLD RELIEF

Offerings To Be Taken Simultaneously In 76,000 Churches

TO HAVE RADIO HOUR

Over 76,000 churches representing every major Christian denomination and communion have united to take one simultaneous offering for world relief at church services on Sunday, according to a joint statement issued from New York City, by Bishop John S. Stumm, President of Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America; Mrs. Harper Sibley, President, United Council of Church Women; Mrs. Fred W. Ramsey, Executive Vice President, Church World Service and Dr. Wynn Fairfield, Chairman of The Secretariat Council, Foreign Missions Conference of North America.

Whole hearted, nationwide support for this history making effort of churches in America was urged in the statement which quoted in full as follows:

"Never before in the history of the world have the churches of Europe and Asia been faced with greater problems and responsibilities. The fate of our civilization may lie in the ability of the churches and especially the churches overseas to meet their responsibilities in carrying forth the Christian ministry. That is why this nationwide united effort by America's Christians has an importance far beyond the practical goal of fund raising. For this great joint program will not only strengthen the vitally important relief and rehabilitation work of the churches overseas but will also prove to all the world just how great is the power generated when Christians unite in such a great common cause."

Among the major denominations and communions participating in this one great offering on Sunday, are the Northern Baptist Convention; Southern Baptist Convention; Church of the Brethren; Congregational Christian Church; Disciples of Christ; Evangelical United Brethren; Evangelical and Reformed Church; Friends Five Year Meeting; National Lutheran Council; Methodist Church; United Presbyterian Church; Presbyterian Church in the U. S.; Reformed Church in America; Roman Catholic Church; The Protestant Episcopal Church; Russian Orthodox Church of North America; Roumanian Orthodox Episcopate of America; Serbian Eastern Orthodox Church.

Over 36,000,000 pieces of preparatory literature have already been placed in the hands of pastoral leaders across the country to prepare their congregations for this great Christian demonstration on Sunday.

This inter-denomination promotion will culminate on Saturday evening, with a nationwide radio program — "One Great Hour" — which will be broadcast for the churches of America by the contribution of the full networks of C.B.S., A.B.C. and M.B.S. from 10 to 11 p. m., EST. "One Great Hour" — written under the direction of the great playwright and author, Robert Sherwood, and by Erik Barnouw, National President of the Radio Writers' Guild — will dramatize the great need of the people in Europe and Asia for food, medicine and clothing and, even more important, the great hunger of these people for the Christian faith and strength that will help them to rebuild their war-torn world.

"One Great Hour" will close with an appeal from the churches in America to the American people to go to church on Sunday morning, and make there a truly sacrificial gift which will be received in the name of Christ for all humanity.

It is hoped that this one great united offering in 76,000 churches on Sunday morning, will enable each participating denomination and communion to carry forth its world relief work for an entire year.

SHOPPING TIPS FOR BUDGETEERS

TOP VALUE in men's shoes, "Marlboro" shoes, exclusive with Snellenburgs, have men-about-town talking. "Marlboro" come in fine smooth leathers, in browns and the new spring wine colors. There's a choice of "bold" or conservative styles. Tips are plain, wing, medallion punched or moccasin type. Soles are average or heavy. Fine workmanship. $8.98. (1st fl.)

TAKE IT EASY when doing spring housecleaning. Don't try to do everything at once, and be sure to work with really helpful tools. I'm just crazy about efficient brushes, as you Budgeteers have reason to know. Well, here's another magic helper—a bedspring brush, like a round cylinder with a paint brush end. It goes right down through the coils, and no foolin'. Well worth $1.25. You'll find it in the Housewares Dept. of Snellenburgs—brush section. (3rd fl.)

EASTER TOPPERS. Can't afford one? Oh yes, you can—if you trot yourselves up to the second floor Sports-wear Dept. of Snellenburgs! There's a neat 100% wool group there at the amazingly low price range of $7.98 to $14.95. There's a wide choice, too—solid navy, green, beige, red and jolly plaid. These clever little coats come in sizes 12 to 18. Now rise and run and shine for Easter! (2nd fl.)

GET ACQUAINTED with cheese this Lent. It's grand for you, because it's really concentrated milk. It doesn't agree with some of you? One kind might not, but another will. Try buying this, that, and the next kind, until you find your families' favorites. The Chestnut St. Store Cheese Counter at Snellenburgs is a wonderful place to haunt, and practically everything but Limburger is easy to carry home. There are luscious imports for buying by the pound, like French Roquefort, Swiss and Italian Locatelli, packaged imports like Swiss Gruyere, Roquefort, etc. Domestic cheeses by the pound include sharp cheddar, Swiss, blue, Munster, etc. And there are shelves filled with all kinds of cheese spreads in glass. Take home or order more than one kind! (1st fl.)

P.S. Do send clippings with mail orders when you can! Phone free (5c, 10c, and 15c out-of-town calls only). Penna.—ENT. 10160; Jersey—WX-1150. Shop located Market, 11th to 12th Sts., Phila.—through to 1125-29 Chestnut St. Be hearin' from you!

Faithfully, FAITH.

GARDEN GIFTS for Easter are always welcomed with joy. If you know anyone who has a patch of earth and loves roses, why not send a boxed "Blaze" rosebush? Planted now or soon, the "Blaze" will bloom in June. The "Blaze" is a climbing, ever-blooming, brilliant red beauty. It will creep up and thicken on porch, trellis, or it will frame a window! Boxed and packed in fertilized soil, so there's no disturbing of roots, a bush costs but $2 in the Garden Corner of Snellenburgs. What about one or two each for your own gardens? (1st fl.)

GIRLS' EASTER FROCKS need not be expensive—not if you select them from the exceptional $4.98 group in that nice Girls' Dept. in Snellenburgs. The youngsters will look like flowers in these pastel cottons. I saw daffodil yellow, forget-me-not blue, wild rose pink, lilac, etc. You and the young set will adore the permanent-finish organdies in the group. At this low price, practically every little girl wearing a size between 7 and 12 can join the Easter parade! (2nd fl.)

PERFECT DOESKINS—clever, tailored shortie gloves for Easter wear or Easter giving—are being offered for $3.98 at the Glove Counter in Snellenburgs. You'll like the detailing, the little simulated cuff-effects. They're washable, smart, practical. Better buy them ahead of time. (1st fl.)

THERE'S YET TIME to make Easter-glory frocks for yourselves or the children! The Yard Goods Dept. of Snellenburgs is displaying a wealth of colorful spring rayons, at very reasonable prices indeed, beginning at a mere 79c a yard. Of course, those of you who are extra clever at sewing will be interested in the shop's unbelievably low-priced 100% wool suitings. The Pattern Counter is nearby. Browse through the many like French Roquefort, Swiss and Italian Locatelli, packaged imports like Swiss Gruyere, Roquefort, etc. Domestic cheeses by the pound include sharp cheddar, Swiss, blue, Munster, etc. And there are shelves filled with all kinds of cheese spreads in glass. Take home or order more than one kind! (1st fl.)

Brilliant new DE SOTO gets tremendous welcome from public!

Come in and see "The Car Designed With YOU in Mind"

IT'S BRAND-NEW... so new that there aren't many on the streets yet. But already it's a tremendous success. And it's easy enough to see why.

Everybody wants a smart, good-looking modern car. But most of us don't want to pay a penalty for being modern. We want more room... more comfort... more visibility... not less.

That's where De Soto scores. It's got those long, low lines. But you don't have to wriggle into it. It has big wide doors. Plenty of headroom, too. The roof won't scrape your hat, no matter where you sit. It's roomier than ever.

It's no use having bigger windows and windshields unless you can see out of them. In the new De Soto you can... because you're sitting on chair-high seats. Even a short person can see over the steering wheel. Even a six-footer won't hit his knees on it. You don't have to enlarge your garage to hold the new De Soto. You can still change a tire yourself. And a dent in the fender doesn't mean an expensive body repair job. Come in and see this wonderful car that lets you drive without shifting. Compare it with any other at any price. Then decide.

Tune in "HIT THE JACKPOT" every Tuesday night, all CBS stations

BRISTOL LEAGUE ARRANGES 2 FINE COURT CONTESTS

Phila. Eagles Will Meet The
All-Stars Basketball
Team

ON B. H. S. FLOOR

Second Contest Will Match
Falls Alumni and St.
Ann's A. A.

The Bristol Basketball League has arranged two fine attractions for the Bristol High School floor tonight, starting at eight o'clock. In the first game, the Philadelphia Eagles will meet the Bristol League All-Stars while the second contest will be the semi-final game of the play-offs with Falls Alumni clashing with St. Ann's A. A.

According to Jack Hinkel, former backfield star of the Eagles' football team, the Eagles' basketball lineup will be studded with several professional football players who also play the court game. In addition there will be several college boys in the lineup.

"Al" Wistert and Ben Kish, who performed for the championship Eagles team last season will occupy starting berths as will "Mike" Jarmaluk, of the New York Bulldogs, and "Walt" Stickle, of the Chicago Bears.

The League All-Star contingent will be managed by Jack Stein, of the Rohm and Haas team, and Peter Harkins, of the Hibernians. This pair will pick their players from the six teams of the circuit, Falls and St. Ann's being excluded. Neither Stein nor Harkins have stated what players have been selected to play.

St. Ann's and Falls Alumni entered the semi-finals by eliminating Franklin and Fifth Ward, respectively. St. Ann's won its tilt by ten points while Falls got by, by a one-point victory.

However, statistics point to a Falls Alumni triumph. The Falls team beat St. Ann's twice during the regular season and was the only team in the loop to beat the "Saints" when it was fortified with players from Fort Monmouth, Van Lente and Malloy were in the St. Ann's lineup when Falls captured its second game.

Malloy will be missing from the St. Ann's lineup tonight but in his place will be "Kenny" Stoll. Malloy has an injured knee but he declares that this will be in shape if St. Ann's enter the finals.

Stoll made the difference in the St. Ann's victory over Franklin and along with VanLente and "Rabbit" Palumbo made a fine trio in scoring power. Defensively, the Saints have Joe Natale, former Bristol High School star, and Manager Fred Barbetta with "Kenny" Martin, Bert Barbetta, Gene Barbetta, and Joe Sallustio being held in reserve.

The Falls outfit has been a dangerous club all season and plays its best when the chips are down. It came through in the closing seconds to snatch the game away from Fifth Ward.

"Dick" Anderson, "Norm" White, Frank Thropp, and the Lynch twins, Roy and Gene, will make up the starting array for "Billy" Leigh's team.

The winner of tonight's fracas will meet Profy's in a three-game series for the championship. The first game will be played next Wednesday night, the second, Thursday night, and the third, if necessary, will be played Saturday, April 2nd. The games will be played on the high school floor.

Warminster Man Disinherits Family; Haycock Woman Disinherits Daughter

DOYLESTOWN, Mar. 24 — A charter member of Bucks County Firemen's Association, the late Victor Smith, Quakertown, has named his widow as beneficiary in his will.

In another will filed in the register of Wills Office a Warminster man disinherited his wife and two children; and a Haycock township woman disinherited her adopted daughter.

Victor A. Smith, of Quakertown, who died Feb. 1, named his widow, Sarah Jane Smith, the beneficiary of his $3,000 personal estate. As executor of his sister, Tillie W. Smith's estate, which amounted to $7447, he turned over that legacy to his children.

A son, Edward L. Smith, 231 Juniper st., Quakertown, was named executor of his father's estate, and the testator's will was written Oct. 20, 1934. The testator was a former Quakertown Burgess.

Joseph G. Cramer, Warminster twp., who left a personal estate of $500, disinherited his wife, Ida L. Cramer, and two daughters, Helen E. Cramer and Edythe R. Kepler, neither of whom he has seen in two decades. In his will, written April 12, 1946, the testator, who named Wallace H. Ross and Wava E. Ross beneficiaries, stipulated that his wife and daughters be disinherited because they had not taken any interest in him for more than 20 years. He died Nov. 21, 1948, and Wava E. Ross, Hatboro, RD 1, was named executrix.

TO CONDUCT SERVICE

Morning Star Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, will conduct service for a late member, Mrs. Harold E. Roberts, Tullytown, Friday evening. Members are asked to meet at the Travel Club home at 7:15 o'clock, from where they will proceed to the funeral home of John C. Black to hold service.

A SUMMARY OF THE NEWS

The Senate passed last night, 68 to 10, a bill extending rent controls for fifteen months. A local-option clause permits municipalities to end controls at any time with the consent of their State Governor. The measure also permits landlords to raise rents 5 per cent twice. Earlier the United States Conference of Mayors adopted a resolution condemning local option and demanding Administration-led opposition.

A House subcommittee, by straight party vote, approved without change the Administration bill to replace the Taft-Hartley Law. The United Electrical Workers asked the CIO to call a national conference to unify fourth-round wage demands.

Louis F. Budenz, former Daily Worker editor, told the jury trying eleven American Communist leaders that he and several of the defendants had taken an oath of eternal loyalty to Premier Stalin.

"I am a whole-hearted supporter" of the North Atlantic pact, Winston Churchill said when he arrived here yesterday. He will speak at the

Both of The Defendants Are In Arrears Amounting To Over $400

N A M E CONSTABLE

DOYLESTOWN, Mar. 24 — Two defendants, each of whom is a father and had been committed to the County Prison in contempt of support orders, were released by President Judge Hiram H. Keller.

Stephen Cuth, 21 West Airy st., Norristown, formerly of Sellersville, R. D. 1, who is $402 in the arrears, was released on condition that $114 be paid to a Millford township woman, Mrs. Latschaw, who boarded his three children, and that another $100 be paid on the arrears.

Cuth, a Conshohocken A. & P. store manager, was "forwarded" two weeks pay—$120—to help pay up his arrears. Of his two weeks vacation pay, which amounts to $65 a week, the sum of $130 will be used toward defraying the $402 arrears.

His three children are now in Catholic institutions for which he is supposed to be paying $18 a week. When he defaulted, the county was forced to pay the $18 a week. President Judge Keller directed the defendant to pay $18 a week and also catch up on the remaining arrears of $172.

Probation Officer Horace E. Gwinnier testified that Mrs. Cuth paid $100 toward the arrears on Saturday, but that the defendant will not be released from prison until the $130 is received from the chain store company.

HERE WE GO AGAIN!

It is very likely that the Atlantic Pact will be approved by the Senate with reasonable promptness, and that Congress will shortly thereafter give Mr. Truman most of what he wants to implement the treaties—give him a billion dollars of cash, and authority to hand over to whatever European nation he wishes any and all arms he decides are "surplus."

There is much misgivings about this plan, both in the nation as a whole and Congress in particular. But there cannot be said to be organized opposition to it.

Befuddlement over public issues is too widespread, and indifference to what the future holds too universal, for any national examination of this program to be likely. The generation is far along in two mind-confusing emotional spirals—the cycle of monetary inflation, and a hysterical arms race based on fear and lack of self-reliance.

These two spirals are interwoven. The impetus which keeps inflation moving ahead is the vast over-spending of our government for "foreign relief" and armaments. The factor which makes it possible for these spending-programs to continue is fear of the future in our foreign relationships.

We are becoming more and more geared to a war economy—or at least, a war-preparation economy. It is appalling to realize that we have drifted into a situation where, as it has been stated, "an outbreak of peace would be an economic disaster."

If the carefully cultivated feeling that war is impending were to vanish overnight, we would plunge into deep depression. The results of such a panic, in view of our involved national finances, might be disaster. But if the war-frenzy continues to grow, sooner or later we will find a war—which also will spell disaster.

These are unpleasant truths—so unpleasant that very few American statesmen seem willing to face them. They are symptoms of a very serious disorder in this nation's well-being.

They furnish the background, however, to present the new Atlantic Pact for what it is—a sleeping pill to keep the patient from realizing how critical is his condition.

The Atlantic Pact is the product of the same thinking which produced such masterpieces of deception and false promise as Lend-Lease, Dumbarton Oaks, Bretton Woods, the fictitious Atlantic Charter, the outrageous concessions to Russia at Tehran, Yalta and Potsdam, the Greek-Turk program, the Marshall Plan, and many other similar projects.

All of these, including the Reciprocal Trade Agreements program of sixteen years ago, have been promoted as guarantees of world solidarity, security and peace. None of them has succeeded. Some have been abandoned, others still clutter the landscape.

ENLIGHTENS CLUB ON "SOCIAL SECURITY"

Harry W. Pease, Manager of S. S. Administration For Area, Speaks

KIWANISANS' SESSION

PENNDDEL, Mar. 24 — The members of the Bucks County Lincoln Highway Kiwanis Club were enlightened on the subject of Social Security at their dinner meeting held on Tuesday evening at a Lincoln highway restaurant, Bensalem township. Harry W. Pease, manager of the Social Security Administration for this area in Bucks County, was the speaker.

Mr. Pease was introduced to the group by John A. Crowley, chairman of the public affairs committee, who was in charge of the program. Mr. Pease gave a brief history of the Social Security law, and went on to explain the provisions of "Old Age" and "Survivors Insurance Program." According to Mr. Pease, this program of insurance affects a great many people in the U. S. In its inception in 1935, the original law provided for the protection of the wage-earner alone. Amendments were made approximately nine years ago to protect other members of the family as well.

THEY GOTTA ADAPT

Television's future as a tool in adult and child education, and as a handy appendage to industry and science, has been examined both eruditely and at length.
But, for the moment, public health interest is chiefly concentrated on it as a purveyor of information and entertainment.

Encroachments into this latter field are now causing a wave of breast-beating and alarms. The consensus among prophets in the broadcasting and entertainment fields is that the infant video is about to turn upon and destroy radio. Latest to offer comment on the chances of radio's ultimate demise is Fred Allen, the gravel-voiced proprietor of Allen's Alley, who probably is as well qualified as anyone to act as spokesman for one sector of the industry.

The way Allen sees it, the end of an era for radio funnymen is at hand, and he includes himself in the decline and fall. Allen observes, "What we do on the air
now is no good for television.
We've been operating for years with pure sound gags as our stock in trade, and suddenly they're no good any more." His tart summation: "We gotta adapt."

Allen feels that video will by no means swallow radio. Radio will decline, perhaps, as television gradually blankets the country, but it will not fold completely.

It is too early to predict permanent trends away from radio and motion pictures. But it is true, as the sage of Allen's Alley points out, "they gotta adapt."

BALKANS ARE BUZZING

President Truman's reports to Congress on Greece seem invariably optimistic, though subsequent events seldom bear him out.
His latest report was in his usual vein, but this time the outlook really does seem to be better. In fact, the fear of an aggressive move by Russia which has the Balkans buzzing stems from the knowledge that Moscow has lost ground in that area and may try forcibly to regain it.

Mr. Truman did inject a word of caution. He warned that a quick and easy victory in Greece was not in sight.

Without American aid, there is little doubt that Greece would now be ruled by a communist dictatorship imposed by force.
American aid produced a stalemate but failed to end the civil war. Tito, it is reported, has closed the Yugoslav-Greek frontier with barbed wire, and the Greek guerrillas have reacted by depos-ing Tito's friend Markos as their leader and increasing their terrorism against the Greek countryside.

Moscow has tried to build up Albania as a base for them, but without much success. The people there are discontented under their Soviet puppet government. But Russia may be planning to play a stronger card. There have been ominous reports of Soviet troop movements in the Balkans, to which Tito has reacted by troop movements of his own. Any Russian blow at Yugoslavia would be felt in Greece.

Here We Go Again!

While none of them has done any of the wonders which were promised, they have all had their results. Every one of them has given the President and bureaucrats vast sums of tax money to spend as they pleased. And every one of them has subtly taken sovereignty away from the American people, where it belongs, and transferred it to the White House, where it doesn't belong.

This new program follows the same lines. Together with foreign relief, the Atlantic Pact will call for the expenditure of some ten to twenty billions of dollars a year of "extra" money by the government, over and above our normal national turnover. This will have the effect of pump-priming, to try to keep inflation alive.

Even more than its predecessors, this plan strips new powers away from Congress, where the people have a chance to control them, and lodged them in the Executive, where they are beyond control.

The Atlantic Pact calls for "automatic" war—that is to say, for war whenever something happens in foreign fields, or is announced to have happened by the American State Department.
It is idle to pretend that Congress would have a free decision whether to declare war or not, in that event. The hand of Congress would be forced. The decision between war and peace will no longer lie where the Constitution placed it, in Congress; but would be where every dictator wants it to be—in the hands of the Chief Executive.

The power to declare war has sometimes been called "the ultimate in sovereignty." That is true. No people have a right to even pretend they are free when their ruler, without consulting them, has the power to plunge them into war.

What the Atlantic Pact sets up is not an alliance between free and equal nations, but a tangled alliance between one nation which still retains some semblance of freedom—the United States —and a horde of Socialist nations which have surrendered freedom for government relief checks.

The objective of the rulers of these foreign countries is very simple. They propose to exploit "capitalist" America—that is to say, the wage-earners of this nation—just as ruthlessly as previous generations of Europeans exploited the natives of Africa, India, and many another group too ignorant or too feeble to stand up for their rights.

They propose to force the American people to contribute to their support, and to supply them with arms, on the threat that otherwise they will throw in with Russia and presently overwhelm us in battle.

Like all diplomatic propositions, this one is not presented in the bald, harsh phrases just used, but is dressed up in all sorts of high-sounding disguises. Yet stripped of these wrappings, that's what it boils down to.

There have been generations of Americans who had the self-confidence to tell blustering "spongers" where to get off—to tell them to go back to work, to live within their earnings, or suffer the consequences.

In twenty years, ever since the American people's faith in themselves was shaken by the world Depression that broke in 1929, we have lacked that type of self-reliance.

We have ourselves become contaminated with that most absurd of all delusions in history—that it is possible for the people of a nation to live comfortably with no more exertion than voting themselves incomes from their governments.

Unlike the exponents of this belief whom we are subsidizing in Europe, we would have nowhere else to turn except upon our own resources, if we go all-out for that program—which may be exactly what we are going to do. We certainly will allow it, if Mr. Truman has his way. Once we start burning up our resources and wealth in Socialism, we will have few friends abroad.
And there is no other country on the face of the earth with enough wealth left after fooling with Socialism to be worth fighting a war to capture.

This is a dark, tragic picture. More than once in the past history of this nation, nothing but unexpected events which were Providential in appearance saved the American venture in self-government from disaster.

Perhaps it's time for a new miracle!

Haines Kent, state Y.M.C.A. secretary, and T. F. Eppley, district executive Y.M.C.A., met with this committee, and it was decided that the district executive should locate his office in Bristol with the thought of developing the work of the Y. M.
C. A. here. On June 1st, 1947, Mr.
Eppley took up his residence in Bristol, and has been at work creating a more extended program of Y.M.C.A. services in this community. An advisory board of 12 men and three women, all civic and industrial leaders in Bristol, has been formed. Through the efforts of this board, a new consciousness for the Y.M.C.A. has been created, and on April 5, 1948, papers were presented in the Bucks County Courts requesting the incorporation of the "Bristol Young Men's Christian Association."

Growth of the Young Men's Christian Association in Bristol has been progressing rapidly. The past two years has seen many new activities created, including the Bucks County Industrial Management Club with 168 men enrolled in its membership from 22 different Bristol plants; the Bristol Youth Week, with over 1500 participating or attending the activities; a full summer program for younger boys with 250 different boys enrolled; greatly extended Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y clubs, now numbering six clubs with a membership of about 150 high school girls and boys; and an active participation in many Y. M.
C. A. rallies, conferences, training camps, etc.

On January 1, the Bristol board took another major step when it signed the lease for the rental of Beaver Fire Co., No. 4 Station, on Mansion street, making building facilities available for a still greater service of the Y.M.C.A. for the youth of Bristol. The new building will include a gymnasium, showers, game rooms, indoor target range,
and a general well-rounded program of supervised activities.

Former Fallington Woman Arrives From Australia

FALLINGTON, Mar. 24 — Arriving from Sydney, Australia, Mrs. Olive Hartman Smith and her four children, aged five months to seven years, are visiting Mrs. Smith's mother, Mrs. Hannah Hartman, here, for a year. Mrs. Smith's husband, Clyde W. Smith, who is engaged in Y.M.C.A. work at Adelaide and Canberra, has remained in Australia.

The Smiths travelled from Sydney to Perth in southwestern Australia, then sailed for England, and finally to New York, N. Y., the journey taking seven weeks. The ship made stops at Ceylon, Aden in Arabia and Port Said.

Mrs. Smith was graduated from Fallington high school in 1934. Later she became a student at West Chester State Teachers' College, where she majored in music. Her first teaching assignment was in North Carolina. She later taught at Richboro, where she remained until June, 1949. It was while at Lake George, N. Y., that she met Mr. Smith, and a short time after their marriage at her home here, they left for Australia.

December and January bring the mid-winter weather to Australia, and at that time the temperature is as high as 115 degrees. She described winter weather as "nippy". The temperature during that season rarely gets lower than 25 degrees. Houses have no central heating systems, and the only heat is produced by wood stoves or fireplaces.

Bowling on the green, tennis, croquet, cricket and rugby are the favorite sports.

According to Mrs. Smith, women work very hard in Australia. Many of them have never seen a clothes wringer and washing machines are scarce. Automobiles in use are mostly of the bantam type, and are quite expensive. A number of the wealthier people are able to purchase American cars, the cheapest of which costs about $1000.

Because Australia is a wool producing country, there is an abundance of woolen goods. What Mrs. Smith misses most are knitted cotton goods, especially for children's apparel. Shoes were described as inferior to American and British made footwear.

Canned fruit juices have not come into use in Australia, and canned vegetables are beginning to appear on the markets in small quantities. The country with a climate that ranges from tropical to temperate has a fine variety of fresh vegetables.

Food prices in Australia, according to Mrs. Smith, are much lower than in the United States. She says a splendid meal can be bought in a restaurant for the equivalent of 50 cents in American money.

SUNDAY DINNER

Suggestions

THE average housewife, constantly seeking "something extra special" for her Sunday dinner, should certainly welcome a menu based on shoulder of lamb, featuring a stuffing of fresh oysters.

Prepared according to recommendations of the A & P Service for Home-Makers, this dish will prove a tasty, tempting and economical addition to any family's dinner table.

When buying the shoulder of lamb have the butcher extract the bone neatly. Then fill this space with a stuffing consisting of a cupful of bread crumbs, a dozen finely chopped raw oysters, two tablespoonfuls of melted butter, one tablespoonful of chopped parsley, one teaspoonful of onion juice and one-half teaspoonful of paprika.

Roast the lamb shoulder in a quick oven. Then, into two tablespoonfuls of softened butter, mix one tablespoonful each of chopped parsley, onion and lemon juice and kitchen bouquet. When done, draw the meat from the oven and spread this sauce over it. Then return to the oven for an additional four minutes.

Garnish the lamb with small, round, fried potatoes, add fresh green peas, and, if desired, serve with either a mixed green salad or a head of lettuce with Russian dressing. Remember, oysters "lie" in season this month and can be used without worry.

For dessert, if the family still has room for it after this filling main course, try serving sliced peaches, light cake and an appropriate beverage, according to your family's taste. At least an honorary degree as Master of the Culinary Arts should result.

Says Toll Rates Are To Be Further Reduced

Tolls on the Tacony-Palmyra and Burlington-Bristol bridges will be reduced further when a system of commutation tickets begins in the near future, Daniel Lichtenthal, vice chairman of the Burlington Bridge Commission announced yesterday.

The cost of the proposed commutation ticket was not disclosed, but Lichtenthal indicated it would be "considerably less" than the present 25-cent toll. The commission has advised Superior Court Judge Hayden Proctor that it plans to adopt the commutation ticket system.

The Judge was informed because the Commission is operating under a Superior Court replevin order secured by Freeholders Henry S. Haines and Richard J. Lippincott, who are trying to set aside the purchase of the county. Lichtenthal added that the commutation tickets will be interchangeable for use on both spans.

Asks Preservation of Old Bucks Co. Homes

MECHANICSVILLE, Mar. 24—An appeal was made by Fred F. Martin, Doylestown architect, for preservation of old buildings in Bucks County, when he spoke to Bucks Co. Chapter, "Daughters of the American Revolution", on Monday. The plea was made in the interest of preserving a heritage as well as adding to the beauty of the countryside.

The luncheon was held at "Sunny Acres", the early American home of Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Poneck here. Mr. Martin described two types of buildings—the manor house with the broad central hall, with spacious rooms throughout, and the homes of the farmers.

He displayed drawings of the Isaiah Warner home in Wrightstown, where Colonel and Mrs. Ira F. Pravel reside—showing the original panelling and fire places.

Drawings of "The Highlands" of the Stewart Chapman farm in New Britain township, where it is said that silver was buried during the Revolution were also shown. This was the home of the late Arthur Chapman.

The speaker also described a combination manor and farm house, the William Rodman house at the Bucks County Home, recently restored. This is the home occupied by Dr. S. P. McIlhatten. It was in this house, on the second floor,

NEWS OF INTEREST TO PA. FARMERS

By John Harms

(I. N. S. Penna. Farm Editor)

HARRISBURG, Mar. 24—It looks like Pennsylvania's farmers are in for a good year.

Agriculture Secretary Miles Horst believes farming and economic conditions generally "paint an optimistic picture for the farmer this year."

Horst said the average farmer is ahead of time this spring because "we've had a good open winter, moisture conditions are favorable, farm equipment is available and the seed situation is fair—although seed prices are a bit higher in some lines."

The prevailing feeling of uncertainty about the economic situation is making the farmer go easy in expanding his facilities.

Horst said "Although I am optimistic about the coming farm season, farmers are reluctant to spend their money for items that are not absolute necessities."

He pointed out farmers are not certain of just what to expect of prices this year and so would be rather cautious in their buying. There are indications, according to statistics on the economic situation, that would call for farmers going easy this season.

Horst said fertilizer prices will be up this year, and so will some feed and fuel. There was no sharp break in those prices in sight, he indicated.

"Consumer prices too are dropping and it appears that the selling market is slowly giving way," he said.

Horst pointed out that although price conditions were on the move, Pennsylvania farmers always have taken the "long view" and would not be worried about short spurts and slumps of the markets.

"This is a very stable, old agriculture we have in Pennsylvania," Horst declared.

"Farmers don't jump to whims too much here. Our farmers don't sink everything into one furrow. Diversification and compensating crops are the by-words on our farms and next to California our state is the greatest diversified agricultural state in the Union," he said.

Commenting on last year's wheat crop failure, Horst said he didn't look for another such mishap for many years. He stressed that last year's wheat slump was caused by smut and barley rust.

The Department is planning an all-out campaign this year to wipe out the rust with the help of a $50,000 grant proposed in the House of Representatives by Rep. Harold G. Wescott (R) Susquehanna.

Horst supplied the following brief facts on the national farm scene: Farmers' prices have been drifting downward an average of about two per cent a month since mid-summer. Prices farmers pay haven't gone down as fast as those they receive. Farm price declines since last summer are due chiefly to big 1948 crops and improved world food situation.

Fluid milk prices will decline some in coming months, but premium over manufacturing milk will stay unusually large for a while. Prices of manufactured dairy products are not likely to decline much in the first half of 1949, although output will increase seasonally.

Prices to growers for fresh vegetables in March and April are likely to average lower than last year. Price supports for 1949 crop potatoes will be about one-third lower than for the 1948 crop.

The Secretary also made some interesting comparisons of Pennsylvania's production with the other farm states in 1948.

Pennsylvania led the pack in buckwheat production. In corn the state was 20th in acreage planted, seventh in yield and 12th in value of crop. Cigar-leaf tobacco figures show the Keystone State first in acreage, yield and production but second in value.

In peaches the state ranked seventh in production of 49 producing states and sixth in value of crop. The Keystone State ranked eighth in potato acreage, 18th in yield, seventh in production and sixth in dollar value.

If you want to keep it a secret don't put it in the Want Ads.

CHURCHES UNITE TO AID WORLD RELIEF

Offerings To Be Taken Simultaneously In 76,000 Churches

TO HAVE RADIO HOUR

Over 76,000 churches representing every major Christian denomination and communion have united to take one simultaneous offering for world relief at church services on Sunday, according to a joint statement issued from New York City, by Bishop John S. Stamm, President of Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America; Mrs. Harper Sibley, President, United Council of Church Women; Mrs. Fred W. Ramsey, Executive Vice President, Church World Service and Dr. Wm. Fairfield, Chairman of The Secretariat Council, Foreign Missions Conference of North America.

Whole hearted, nationwide support for this history making effort of churches in America was urged in the statement which quoted in full as follows:

"Never before in the history of the world have the churches of Europe and Asia been faced with greater problems and responsibilities. The fate of our civilization may lie in the ability of the churches and especially the churches overseas to meet their responsibilities in carrying forth the Christian ministry. That is why this nationwide united effort by America's Christians has an importance far beyond the practical goal of fund raising. For this great joint program will not only strengthen the vitally important relief and rehabilitation work of the churches overseas but will also prove to all the world just how great is the power generated when Christians unite in such a great common cause."

Among the major denominations and communions participating in this one great offering on Sunday,

are the Northern Baptist Convention; Southern Baptist Convention; Church of the Brethren; Congregational Christian Church; Disciples of Christ; Evangelical United Brethren; Evangelical and Reformed Church; Friends Five Year Meeting; National Lutheran Council; Methodist Church; United Presbyterian Church; Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A.; Reformed Church in America; Roman Catholic Church; The Protestant Episcopal Church; Russian Orthodox Church of North America; Roumanian Orthodox Episcopate of America; Serbian Eastern Orthodox Church.

Over 36,000,000 pieces of preparatory literature have already been placed in the hands of pastoral leaders across the country to prepare their congregations for this great Christian demonstration on Sunday.

This inter-denomination promotion will culminate on Saturday evening with a nationwide radio program — "One Great Hour" — which will be broadcast for the churches of America by the contribution of the full networks of C.B.S., A.B.C. and M.B.S. from 10 to 11 p. m., EST. "One Great Hour" — written under the direction of the great playwright and author, Robert Sherwood, and by Erik Barnouw, National President of the Radio Writers' Guild — will dramatize the great need of the people in Europe and Asia for food, medicine and clothing and, even more important, the great hunger of these people for the Christian faith and strength that will help them to rebuild their war-torn world.

"One Great Hour" will close with an appeal from the churches in America to the American people to go to church on Sunday morning, and make there a truly sacrificial gift which will be received in the name of Christ for all humanity.

It is hoped that this one great united offering in 76,000 churches on Sunday morning, will enable each participating denomination and communion to carry forth its world relief work for an entire year.

GARDEN GIFTS for Easter are always welcomed with joy. If you know anyone who has a patch of earth and loves roses, why not send a boxed "Blaze" rosebush? Planted now or soon, the "Blaze" will bloom in June. The "Blaze" is a climbing, ever-blooming, brilliant red beauty. It will creep up and thicken on porch, trellis, or it will frame a window!
Boxed and packed in fertilized soil,
so there's no disturbing of roots,
a bush costs but $2 in the Garden Corner of Snellenburgs. What about one or two each for your own gardens? (1st fl.)

TAKE IT EASY when doing spring housecleaning. Don't try to do everything at once,
and be sure to work
with really helpful tools. I'm just crazy about efficient brushes, as you Budgeteers have reason to know.
Well, here's another magic helper
— a bedspring brush, like a round cylinder with a paint brush end. It goes right down through the coils, and no footin'. Well worth $1.25.
You'll find it in the Housewares
Dept. of Snellenburgs—brush section. (3rd fl.)

EASTER TOPPERS.
Can't afford one? Oh
yes, you can — if you trot yourselves up to the second floor Sportswear Dept. of Snellenburgs! There's a neat 100% wool group there at the amazingly low price range of $7.98 to $14.95. There's a wide choice, too — solid navy, green, beige, red and jolly plaids. These clever little coats come in sizes 12 to 18. Now rise and run and shine for Easter!
(2nd fl.)

GET ACQUAINTED
with cheese this Lent.
It's grand for you, because it's really concentrated milk. It doesn't agree with some of you?
One kind might not.
but another will. Try buying this,
that, and the next kind, until you find your families' favorites. The Chestnut St. Store Cheese Counter at Snellenburgs is a wonderful place to haunt, and practically everything but Limburger is easy to carry home. There are shelves filled with all kinds of cheese spreads in glass. Take home or order more than one kind! (1st fl.)

PERFECT DOESKINS
— clever, tailored shortie gloves for Easter wear or Easter giving — are being offered for $3.98 at the Glove Counter in Snellenburgs. You'll like the detailing, the little simulated cuff-effects. They're washable, smart, practical. Better buy them ahead of time. (1st fl.)

THERE'S YET TIME
to make Easter-glory
frocks for yourselves or the children! The Yard Goods Dept. of Snellenburgs is displaying a wealth of colorful spring rayons, at very reasonable prices indeed, beginning at a mere 79c a yard. Of course, those of you who are extra clever at sewing will be interested in the shop's unbelievably low-priced 100% wool suitings. The Pattern Counter is nearby. Browse through the many new style books, and then decide upon your materials. Remember, beginning dressmakers should select the simplest of patterns. Completing even a small child's frock easily and quickly will instill courage for attempting more elaborate garments. Good luck to your efforts! (2nd fl.)

Come in and see "The Car Designed With YOU in Mind"

IT'S BRAND-NEW... so new that there aren't many on the streets yet. But already it's a tremendous success. And it's easy enough to see why.

Everybody wants a smart, good-looking modern car. But most of us don't want to pay a penalty for being modern. We want more room... more comfort
... more visibility... not less.

That's where De Soto scores. It's got those long, low lines. But you don't have to wriggle into it. It has big wide doors. Plenty of headroom, too. The roof won't scrape your hat, no matter where you sit. It's roomier than ever.

It's no use having bigger windows and windshields unless you can see out of them. In the new De Soto you can... because you're sitting on chair-high seats. Even a short person can see over the steering wheel. Even a six-footer won't hit his knees on it.
You don't have to enlarge your garage to hold the new De Soto. You can still change a tire yourself.
And a dent in the fender doesn't mean an expensive body repair job. Come in and see this wonderful car that lets you drive without shifting. Compare it with any other at any price. Then decide.

BRISTOL LEAGUE ARRANGES 2 FINE COURT CONTESTS

Phila. Eagles Will Meet The
All-Stars Basketball
Team

ON B. H. S. FLOOR

Second Contest Will Match
Falls Alumni and St.
Ann's A. A.

The Bristol Basketball League has arranged two fine attractions for the Bristol High School floor tonight, starting at eight o'clock.

In the first game, the Philadelphia Eagles will meet the Bristol League All-Stars while the second contest will be the semi-final game of the play-offs with Falls Alumni clashing with St. Ann's A. A.

According to Jack Hinkel, former backfield star of the Eagles' football team, the Eagles' basketball lineup will be studded with several professional football players who also play the court game. In addition there will be several college boys in the lineup.

"Al" Wistert and Ben Kish, who performed for the championship Eagles team last season will occupy starting berths as will "Mike" Jarmaluk, of the New York Bulldogs, and "Walt" Stickle, of the Chicago Bears.

The League All-Star contingent will be managed by Jack Stein, of the Rohm and Haas team, and Peter Harkins, of the Hibernians. This pair will pick their players from the six teams of the circuit, Falls and St. Ann's being excluded. Neither Stein nor Harkins have stated what players have been selected to play.

St. Ann's and Falls Alumni entered the semi-finals by eliminating Franklin and Fifth Ward, respectively. St. Ann's won its tilt by ten points while Falls got by, by a one-point victory.

However, statistics point to a Falls Alumni triumph. The Falls team beat St. Ann's twice during the regular season and was the only team in the loop to beat the "Saints" when it was fortified with players from Fort Monmouth. Van Lenten and Malloy were in the St. Ann's lineup when Falls captured its second game.

Malloy will be missing from the St. Ann's lineup tonight but in his place will be "Kenny" Stoll. Malloy has an injured knee but he declares that this will be in shape if St. Ann's enter the finals.

Stoll made the difference in the St. Ann's victory over Franklin and along with VanLenten and "Rabbit" Palumbo made a fine trio in scoring power. Defensively, the Saints have Joe Natale, former Bristol High School star, and Manager Fred Barbetta with "Kenny" Martin, Bert Barbetta, Gene Barbetta, and Joe Sallustio being held in reserve.

The Falls outfit has been a dangerous club all season and plays

its best when the chips are down. It came through in the closing seconds to snatch the game away from Fifth Ward.

"Dick" Anderson, "Norm" White, Frank Thropp, and the Lynch twins, Roy and Gene, will make up the
